TRADE UNIONS AND THE COMMON LAW IN NEW ZEALAND

Rodney Eric Harrison, B.A., LL.B. (Hons)

A thesis submitted for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy of the University of Auckland.

Auckland, February 1973
The topic of this thesis had its origins in suggestions made by Dr J.A. Farmer, a former lecturer in industrial law at Auckland Law School. I should like to record my indebtedness to my supervisor, Professor J.F. Northey, Dean of Auckland Law School, for his considerable assistance to me in the writing of this thesis, and for the willingness with which he gave up so much of his valuable time on my behalf; and also to my wife Margaret for her patience during the long period in limbo. I have attempted to state the law as contained in sources available to me at 1st November 1972.
