A. Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga — Conference Hosts

Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga (NPM) is New Zealand’s Māori Centre of Research Excellence (CoRE) and is one of ten nationally significant CoREs funded by the New Zealand Government, and is hosted by the University of Auckland. NPM is an inter-institutional network of researchers from across the country who have provided world-class research to Aotearoa and the world for the past 14 years (www.maramatanga.ac.nz).

NPM has 21 partner research entities. Our research seeks to realise Māori aspirations for positive engagement in national society, enhances our excellence in Indigenous scholarship and provides solutions to major challenges facing humanity in local and global settings. Our vision is Māori leading New Zealand into the future; through a research programme grounded in mātauranga Māori, Māori science, kaupapa Māori and tikanga Māori approaches and methods and inspired by all appropriate global disciplinary knowledges and techniques.

Whāia ngā pae o te māramatanga
Ko te pae tawhiti, whāia kia tata
Ko te pae tata, whakamaua kia tinā
E puta ai ki te whaiao, ki te ao mārama!

Search in the innermost recesses of the intellect
To seek new knowledge as yet unexplored
As the past is purchased by the present
And the future is the goal of tomorrow

B. Conference Themes

This conference will highlight Indigeneity and the multidisciplinary approaches used for Indigenous development. Presentations and papers address aspects of the following research themes that invest Indigeneity strongly into the research space:

Whai Rawa – Prosperous Indigenous Economies
Development of theories, models and tools that add value and enhance the profitability of diverse Indigenous businesses, enterprises and communities. Creation of new understandings and approaches for effective governance of resources that grow the economies of Indigenous communities while celebrating cultural knowledges, practices and values.

Te Tai Ao – Healthy Natural Environments
Increased evidence to ensure coasts, waters, forests and lands are healthy and thriving ecosystems providing a sustainable basis for Indigenous aspirations. Greater solutions for Indigenous peoples to respond to environmental challenges at local, regional, national and global levels.

Mauri Ora – Indigenous Human Flourishing
Strengthened social, health and community knowledges and practices that mitigate harm, nourish health and wellbeing and enhance flourishing Indigenous communities. Further development of Indigenous ethical foundations and strategies for positive, interconnected and enduring relationships.

Mahi Auaha – Creative Indigenous Innovation
Development of further technology to support Indigenous aspirations for positive engagement in our communities and enhanced excellence in Indigenous scholarship. Novel tools and methods for transforming outcomes for Indigenous peoples and celebrating Indigenous innovation.

Te Reo me Ngā Tikanga Māori – Thriving Indigenous languages and cultures
Increased revitalisation and normalisation of Indigenous languages, customs and values within research settings, communities and society. Further development of research-based revival and recovery tools and solutions for engagement, use and transmission of Indigenous languages and cultures.

D. Keynote Speakers: Session Times and Biographies
The speakers are listed below in order of their appearance in the programme.

Conference Welcome and Opening Panel Keynote
Indigenous Collaboration for Research Excellence
Tuesday 15 November 2016, 3.00-3.55pm
Professor Linda Tuhiwai Smith
International Research Advisory Board Chair, Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga
Co-Chairs and Discussants: Professor Jacinta Ruru and Associate Professor Tracey McIntosh

Professor Linda Smith is a leading international authority on Indigenous education and health, and is particularly well-known for her book “Decolonising Methodologies: Research and Indigenous Peoples”.

She is a member of the Marsden Fund, serves on New Zealand’s Health Research Council, chairing the Māori Health Research Committee, and is past president of the New Zealand Association for Research in Education. She has extensive experience in building Māori and Indigenous research capacity, and has helped establish three research institutes - including Ngā Pae o Te Māramatanga, New Zealand’s Māori Centre of Research Excellence.

Conference Welcome and Opening Panel
Indigenous Collaboration for Research Excellence
Tuesday 15 November 2016, 3.00-3.55pm
Sir Tipene O'Regan
Board Chair, Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga
Co-Chairs and Discussants: Professor Jacinta Ruru and Associate Professor Tracey McIntosh

Sir Tipene O’Regan is the retired Assistant Vice-Chancellor Māori of the University of Canterbury and former long-serving Chairman of the Ngāi Tahu Māori Trust Board. He remains as Adjunct Professor in the Ngāi Tahu Research Centre at the University of Canterbury and as a Fellow of the University of Auckland where he chairs Ngā Pae o Te Māramatanga, the Centre for Māori Research Excellence. He holds a D.Litt (Hons) from the University of Canterbury, a D.Comm (Hons) from Lincoln University and a D.Comm (Hons) from Victoria University of Wellington. He is a Distinguished Fellow of the Institute of Directors and recently retired from a 28 year term as a member of the New Zealand Geographic Board. Sir Tipene led the Ngāi Tahu Claims process before the Waitangi Tribunal from 1986, culminating in a notable settlement with the Crown in 1998. He was the architect of the Treaty Fisheries Settlements in 1989 and 1992 and became the founding Chairman of Te Ohu Kai Moana, the Māori Fisheries Trust. He has been chairman and director of a wide range of entities in both the public and private sectors and has held major board appointments in both the heritage and environment sectors.

Sir Tipene currently chairs Te Pae Korako and Te Pae Kaihika for Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu. These two bodies lead the tribe’s work in developing the Ngāi Tahu archive, GIS cultural mapping and authentication of traditional history. His personal scholarly interest is largely in traditional history and ethnology of Ngāi Tahu and Te Waipounamu. In more recent years Sir Tipene has become a widely recognised participant in the debate on the shape and character of the Māori economy and the modernising of iwi governance models. He was made a Knight Bachelor in 1994.

Indigenous Collaboration for Research Excellence
Tuesday 15 November 2016, 3.00-3.55pm
Professor Jacinta Ruru
Co-Director, Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga

Jacinta Ruru (Raukawa, Ngāti Ranginui) is Co-Director of Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga and Professor of Law at the University of Otago. Her extensive interdisciplinary research explores Indigenous peoples' legal rights, responsibilities and interests to own, manage and govern land and water in Aotearoa New Zealand, Canada, United States, Australia and the Scandinavian countries.

She has led, or co-led, several national and international research projects including on the Common Law Doctrine of Discovery of Indigenous lands, Indigenous peoples’ rights to freshwater and minerals and multidisciplinary understandings of landscapes. She holds a PhD from the University of Victoria in Canada and has won awards for teaching and research including the Prime Minister’s award for tertiary teaching excellence. Professor Ruru is a Fellow of the Royal Society of New Zealand, a Fulbright-Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga scholar, and an associate at the University of New South Wales’ Indigenous Law Centre. At Otago her leadership in the Poutama Ara Rau Research Theme and the Te Ihaka Building Māori Leaders in Law programme inspire tertiary innovation for Māori success.
Conference Welcome and Opening Panel
Indigenous Collaboration for Research Excellence
Tuesday 15 November 2016, 3.00-3.55pm
Associate Professor Tracey McIntosh
Co-Director, Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga

Tracey McIntosh (Tūhoe) has presented internationally on her groundbreaking research. She is an Associate Professor and teaches in the sociology and criminology programme at the University of Auckland. Her current areas of research are women in prison - particularly Māori women, while also looking at male ex-prisoners with gang associations. She is particularly interested in looking at the intergenerational transfer of social inequalities, focusing the prison situation in New Zealand where the country has one of the highest incarceration rates in the world and also one of the highest levels of racial disproportionality.

Tracey was the Joint Director of Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga (NPM) from 2007-2009, returned as sole Director in 2014, and is now Co-Director of NPM's new Centre of Research Excellence with Jacinta Ruru. She brings a wide level of experience to her role at NPM in international work, community development, student equity and in her wider contributions to the academic community. Prior to returning to the University of Auckland in 1999 Tracey lectured at the University of the South Pacific in Fiji and previous to that lived in France, Burundi and Tonga. She was a Fulbright Visiting Lecturer in New Zealand Studies at Georgetown University in Washington D.C. in 2004 and has served on Fulbright selection panels and as a Fulbright student advisor since then.

Conference Keynote
Te Reo me Ngā Tikanga Māori – Thriving Indigenous Languages
Tuesday 15 November 2016, 4.00-5.15pm
Justice Joe Williams
F&P Auditorium
Chair: Dr The Honourable Sir Pita R Sharples

Justice Williams graduated from Victoria University with an LLB in 1986 and from the University of British Columbia, Canada, with an LLM (Hons) in 1988. He was the first Māori lecturer in law at Victoria University in Wellington, he established the first unit specialising in Māori issues at a major law firm (Kensington Swan) and was the youngest person to be appointed to the position of Chief Judge (December 1999). Joe is a former vice-president of the Māori Law Society, a former president of Te Runanga Roia o Tamaki Makaurau, the Auckland Māori Lawyers Association, a fellow of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, a fellow of the Law Faculty of Victoria University of Wellington and was appointed as the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal in 2004.

Justice Williams’ ongoing work and interests are focused on Māori land rights law, language, resource management, environmental law and Treaty of Waitangi issues and he remains determined in ensuring that Māori value systems are recognised within the judicial system.

Conference Keynote
Mauri Ora – Indigenous Human Flourishing
Wednesday 16 November 2016, 8.15-9.35am
Professor Sir Mason Durie
F&P Auditorium
Co-Chairs and Discussants: Professor Linda Waimarie Nikora and Associate Professor Papaarangi Reid

Sir Mason Durie KNZM FRSNZ FRANZCP is one of New Zealand’s most respected academics, and was knighted in 2010 for services to public and Māori health.

He has a Bachelor of Medicine and a Bachelor of Surgery from the University of Otago, and has focused on improving Māori health outcomes for much of his career. In 1988 he was appointed Professor and Head of Te Pūtahi-ā-Toi, School of Māori Studies at Massey University and subsequent to that was appointed Chair of Māori Research and Development in 2002.

Massey awarded him an honorary doctorate in literature in 2003, and in 2009 Otago University awarded him an Honorary Doctor of Laws. He has been a Fellow of the Royal Society of New Zealand since 1995 and a Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit since 2001. He chaired the Taskforce on Whānau-Centred Initiatives that produce the Whānau Ora report for the Government in 2010 and remains involved in a wide range of tertiary, educational, health and social service boards through to the present day.

For over 40 years, Mason has been at the forefront of a transformational approach to Māori health and has played major roles in building the Māori health workforce. His efforts have been recognised by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists, the Public Health Association of New Zealand, the Māori Medical Practitioners Association, the Thoracic Society of Australia and New Zealand, and the Polynesian Society.
In addition to his lifelong commitment to Māori health, Professor Durie has also championed higher education for Māori. As Deputy Chair of Te Wānanga o Raukawa, Professor of Māori Research and Development, and more recently Deputy Vice-Chancellor at Massey University, he has continued to provide national academic leadership for Māori and Indigenous development and regularly assists Iwi and Māori communities to realise their own aspirations for socio-economic advancement.

Conference Keynote
Whai Rawa – Prosperous Indigenous Economies
Thursday 17 November 2016, 8.15-9.35am
Mr Patrick Kelly
F&P Auditorium
Co-Chairs and Discussants: Associate Professor Mānuka Hēnare and Dr Shaun Awatere

Patrick is a member of the Leq'á:mel First Nation (Sto:lo Nation.) He operates a consulting business and was Advisor and Director of the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry. He has previously been an Advisor to the Lieutenant Governor of BC, and in December 2010, Patrick was appointed as Governor of the Law Foundation of BC. Patrick is co-chair of the Banff Centre Indigenous Program Council, is a member of the UVic Gustavson School of Business International Advisory Board and the UBC Sauder School of Business Ch’nook Indigenous Business Advisory Board.

The Leq'á:mel First Nation elected Patrick Treaty Representative for treaty negotiations, a role he held from 1998 to 2001. He has also previously been Vice President, National Services, CESO,BC Director, Strategic Planning and Communications, Indian and Northern Affairs Canada, Manager, Cultural Relations and Corporate Training in BC Hydro’s Aboriginal Relations Department and Executive Director of the BC Chapter of the Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business.

From July 2002 to June 2010, the Attorney General for British Columbia (BC) appointed Patrick as a Bencher for the Law Society of BC, to represent the public interest in the administration of justice. He is now a Life Bencher.

Patrick has been an active community volunteer holding executive positions with the Mission Chamber of Commerce, the Mission Heritage Association, the Mission Indian Friendship Centre, and the Coqualeetza Cultural Centre and in March 2009, received a BC Community Achievement Award. Patrick is founding President of the BC Aboriginal Golf Association established in April 2009.
Dr Donna DeGennaro teaches at the University of North Carolina, Wilmington. Her passion for creating socially focused just learning designs that are technology-mediated and youth-driven, has fueled her work with youth in informal learning environments in the US and abroad for the past 10 years.

Over this period Donna has developed an innovative pedagogical model that simultaneously addresses the digital divide, culturally responsive learning, and social justice education. She has also recently founded Unlocking Silent Histories (USH), a non-profit organization that aims to amplify the voices and identities of Indigenous youth.

USH utilized this pedagogy model that emerges from the local context. She was motivated to start USH after being perpetually inspired by the ways that the pedagogical model not only unleashes youth voice and agency, but also opens spaces for young people to envision and create their own futures. Her commitment to Indigenous populations began in Guatemala, where she witnessed USH participants capturing their languages and cultures.

Associate Professor Whyte holds the Timnick Chair in the Humanities at Michigan State University. He is Associate Professor of Philosophy and Community Sustainability, a faculty member of the Environmental Philosophy and Ethics graduate concentration, and a faculty affiliate of the American Indian Studies and Environmental Science and Policy programs. His primary research addresses moral and political issues concerning climate policy and Indigenous peoples and the ethics... of cooperative relationships between Indigenous peoples and climate science organisations. He is an enrolled member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation.

His articles have appeared in journals such as Climatic Change, Sustainability Science, Environmental Justice, Hypatia, Ecological Processes, Synthese, Human Ecology, Journal of Global Ethics, American Journal of Bioethics, Journal of Agricultural and Environmental Ethics, Ethics, Policy and Environment, and Ethics and the Environment. Kyle's work has been funded by the National Science Foundation, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Northeast Climate Science Center, Great Lakes Integrated Sciences and Assessments Center, Mellon Foundation, Sustainable Michigan Endowed Program and Spencer Foundation.

Dr Whyte serves on the U.S. Department of Interior’s Advisory Committee on Climate Change and Natural Resource Science and is involved in the Climate and Traditional Knowledges Workgroup, Sustainable Development Institute of the College of Menominee Nation, Tribal Climate Camp, Michigan Environmental Justice Coalition, Everybody Eats: Cultivating Food Democracy, Humanities for the Environment, and the Consortium for Socially Relevant Philosophy of/in Science. He is a recipient of the 2015 Bunyan Bryan Award for Academic Excellence given by Detroiters Working for Environmental Justice.

Join us for after hours entry to one of Auckland’s most prominent cultural institutions and enjoy exclusive access to the Māori and Pacific galleries, the largest and most valuable collection of Māori tāonga (treasures) in the world.

A relaxed affair the conference dinner does not include formal sit-down dining, we encourage wearing comfortable footwear so you can enjoy perusing the Māori and Pacific exhibits at your leisure. We will, however, have seating for elders and special guests. Delegates will enjoy a complimentary drink on arrival, and a sumptuous finger food menu of Māori and Pacific inspired dishes designed especially for the evening. A cash bar will be available throughout the evening for delegates to purchase non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages.

Once again, a highlight of the conference dinner is the sharing and celebration of cultural performances by delegates attending the conference. Led by Paora Sharples (Kapahaka and Māori Weaponry expert) delegates will be invited to share their cultural items during a set time in the evening’s programme.

Parking can be found around the Domain free from 5pm and with no time restriction. Additional parking can be found in the Museums Underground Car Park. Please have your ticket validated upon arrival at the main entrance.
H. Movie Night, Thursday, 17 November 2016

The Dark Horse (124 Min)
Time: 7.00pm to 9.30pm
Where: Arts 206 (Level 2) Room 209

Director: James Napier Robertson
Producer: Tom Hern (Four Nights Film)
Executive Producer: Tim White

Starring an extraordinary NZ cast, including Cliff Curtis (Whale Rider and Boy), James Rolleston (Boy) and Kirk Torrance (Outrageous Fortune), The Dark Horse is an inspiring true story based on the life of a charismatic, brilliant but little-known New Zealand Hero and Chess champion – Genesis Potini (Gen).

The Dark Horse is a provocative, emotionally-charged and inspiring drama about a man who searches for the courage to lead, despite his own adversities - finding purpose and hope in passing on his gift to the children in his community.

It is a film about two lost souls finding the strength to carry on through each other's company - believing in themselves; even if no one else does.

Following the screening of The Dark Horse, Dr Ella Henry will lead a short discussion.
Accused of terrorism, running a private militia and jailed on gun charges, political activist Tame Iti fights for his tribe Ngāi Tūhoe to be a sovereign nation within New Zealand. How high is the price of peace? Tame’s life changed forever on October 15, 2007. In the dead of night, heavily armed police in military style uniform raided his home and the homes of many more people in what became known as the infamous “terror raids.” For the next six years he fought to clear his name and the name of his Tūhoe people. This documentary follows Tame through the Court system, through his jail sentence, and is with him on his return home.

Following the screening of The Price of Peace, Paora Sharples will lead a short discussion.
Te Mana o Te Moana – The Pacific Voyagers (99 min)
Time: 7.30pm to 9.30pm
Where: Arts 206 (Level 2) Room 203

Director: Anna Marbrook
Producer: Heather Lee

“Pacific Navigation and voyaging requires imagination and determination to traverse the stories that have been locked in our physical memories, DNA stored. To remember is to laugh, to cry, to celebrate and to mourn. To remember is to sense the mana of our seafaring ancestors, whose feats of bravery were underpinned by their knowledge and skill.” Hoturoa Barclay-Kerr

Te Mana o Te Moana – The Pacific Voyagers is the epic voyage of 100 Pan-Pacific Islanders who traverse 1000’s of nautical miles in seven vaka moana to fight for the future of their ocean.

As they sail from New Zealand to Tahiti, USA, Galapagos and on to the Solomon Islands they reclaim their heritage as the finest sailors, celestial navigators and stewards of the Pacific. The lessons of the past propel them to chart a bold new course. Their odyssey illuminates just how intricately all of our lives are tied to the great, but fragile, Pacific Ocean.

Following the screening of Te Mana o Te Moana, Dr Daniel Hikuroa will lead a short discussion with guest of honour Jack Thatcher.
I. An ABC of Information for Conference Delegates

3MT® Competition
Three Minute Thesis (3MT®) is a research communication competition developed by The University of Queensland (UQ). Whereby PhD students have three minutes to present a compelling oration on their thesis and its significance.
3MT challenges students to consolidate their ideas and research discoveries so they can be presented concisely to a non-specialist audience.
Co-Chairs Dr Karyn Paringatai, Te Tumu, School of Māori, Pacific & Indigenous Studies, University of Otago and Khylee Quince, Faculty of Law, University of Auckland invite you to join us and the Masters and PhD contestants vying to win the first inaugural Ngā Pae o te Māramatanga International Indigenous Research Conference 3 Minute Thesis competition 2016. Enthusiasm for the first Indigenous 3MT® and its adoption into our Biennial International Indigenous Research Conference was developed alongside The University of Queensland (UQ) and we hope this is the first of many reputable and popular fixtures in the conference program.

Assistance during the Conference
Please approach the Registration and Information desk at the OGGB Level 1 Foyer for both registration-related and general enquiries. For assistance at any time, please see one of our staff members and/or volunteer student helpers who will be located at the OGGB Level 1 Foyer and Waipapa Marae. Both venues will be used for morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea. The lunchtime roundtable presentations will be held in Waipapa Marae (Tāne-nui-ā-rangi, the meeting house) on Wednesday and Thursday. For security purposes the marae will be locked when not in use. Please be respectful of marae protocol at all times and ensure no food is taken or eaten inside and shoes are removed before entering the meeting house.

ATM Cash Machine
ATM cash machines can be located inside OGGB Level 1 Foyer adjacent to the ASB Bank and the registration desk.

Audience Etiquette
Please be courteous and brief with your questions or comments as this conference is about positivity. We ask that you give presenters hearty applause, be on time to sessions so as not to distract speakers and try not to leave during a session (especially if you are near the front) as it is off-putting to the speaker. Questions or comments will only be allowed if time permits. Chair of sessions will keep strictly to time limits. In the event that a chairperson fails to show for a session, a member of the audience is encouraged to step forth and take charge.

Car Parking
Discounted conference car parking tickets can be purchased with cash from the Registration and Information desk. The discounted price is for the OGGB car park only. The car park entry is on Grafton Road, when entering the car park, stop at the barrier arm, press the entry button on the ticketing machine, take the parking ticket and park your car. Please take this ticket to our Registration and Information desk on Level 1 to purchase your exit ticket at the discounted rate of $12.00 per day. The Exit ticket can only be used once, that is, when exiting the parking building.

If you purchased car parking as part of your registration fee please drive into the OGGB car park and take a ticket from the machine at the gate to enter. When you register at the Registration Desk you will be given your exit tickets which are to be used when you exit each day.

Anyone wishing to simply park up their vehicle for the duration of conference should let the parking attendant at the OGGB car park entrance know. The costs are variable and depend on your time of entry and exit. You will need to provide your vehicle’s registration number and the location where the car is parked at the time of parking so that your vehicle is not towed away.

Catering
Your conference fee covers all morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea meals. All meals will be served in our two locations: Level 1 Foyer, OGGB and Waipapa Wharekai (dining hall). Please visit both venues as we have exhibitors and market stall holders at each.

Cell phones
During all presentations please switch off or turn your cell phones to silent. Do not answer any incoming phone calls that you might receive while in a conference session.
Clothing and Auckland Weather Temperatures

Smart casual dress will be expected during the pōwhiri (traditional Māori welcome). At all other times casual dress is acceptable and appropriate including social events including the conference dinner.

The lecture theatres tend to be cool due to temperature controlled air-conditioning in the building, so you may wish to bring a warm top or jacket.

New Zealand regional temperatures during November are variable and although packing layers (from light t-shirts to fleeces) is advisable, extreme weather conditions are rare. It can feel like spring, it can feel like summer; the following Auckland temperatures are mean daily maximum and minimum temperatures in Celsius and Fahrenheit. Rainfall is indicated as the average rainfall days per season.

Conference APP

We are excited to be using the official ShowGizmo app for the first time this year. You can use the app to view profiles of all speakers, sessions, map locations and to keep up with real time alerts, news and tweets and chat during the event in the palm of your hand. Find people you're looking for and exchange contact details. This is also the best place to complete the conference survey as your feedback is important to us.

The app is available on Android, iOS and mobile browsers. Simply scan the QR code, download the ShowGizmo app, enter your email and create a password. If you already have a sign in then use your previous password or reset your password.
Conference Dinner
The conference dinner will be held on the evening of Wednesday 16 November 2016 and we are pleased to announce that one of our partner research entities, Tāmaki Paenga Hira, Auckland War Memorial Museum is our Exclusive Conference Dinner Sponsor and host.

As the conference dinner does not include formal sit-down dining, we encourage wearing comfortable footwear. We will, however, have seating for elders and special guests.

Conference ID
Your conference ID will be issued at the Registration and Information desk, opening at 10am on Tuesday 15 November 2016. Please wear your ID at all times to identify you with the conference, OGGB is New Zealand's largest teaching space, there will be a number of postgraduate, executive and manager degree programmes being taught, alongside another conference being held on Level 0 during this same week.

Computers and Internet
Onsite computers are available for conference delegates to use on Level 0, OGGB. Please feel free to use the computers to check email, use the internet or other applications. These PCs run Windows 7 and Microsoft Office 2013. Please respect others who also need to use the PCs. Free WiFi is also available for you to access onsite and WiFi network usernames and passwords are provided on the back of your conference nametag.

Cultural Protocols
A briefing on the protocols for the pōwhiri (traditional Māori welcome onto Waipapa Marae) will take place outside the Marae complex at 11.30am on Tuesday 15 November, straight before the pōwhiri which starts at 11.45am. The ceremony could take two hours.

Karakia (prayers) are said before meals and at the start of each day. Where available, visitors from other cultures may be invited to lead karakia in accordance with their own customs and/or language. At meal times, a utensil is tapped on the table to indicate that the person is about to commence the karakia. Please wait until karakia is completed before commencing to eat. If you are first on the scene please feel free to undertake this task. Meanwhile, delegates are asked to refrain from sitting on or placing hats on food tables as these practices are frowned upon in Māori culture.

Kaumātua (elderly people) of all nations are held in high regard in Māori culture and are to be treated with care and dignity. Younger delegates, therefore, are asked to defer to kaumātua and our invited speakers by allowing them to proceed to the front of the queue at meal times and by letting them have the seating spaces at the dining tables. Please note that our invited speakers and our overseas visitors should also be accorded priority treatment by local conference delegates.

A full description of Māori customs and Waipapa Marae protocol is provided in section L. Waipapa Marae: Protocol for the Pōwhiri, page 33.

Dietary Needs
Efforts have been made in the selection of menus to include vegetarian and vegan food options. At meal times, please allow those with special dietary needs to enter directly after kaumātua and invited speakers so that they are able to access the options they require and that are available to them before it runs out. Vegetarian and vegan meals, where possible, will be labelled and made available during breaks at the Level 1 Foyer, OGGB catering stations.

Diversity
We welcome and honour the diversity of all the people involved in this conference, regardless of race, indigeneity, gender, religion, disability, or sexual orientation. We ask that this respect is extended by all.

Downtown Auckland
Queen Street, the main street of Auckland is about 10 minutes’ walk from the conference venue and closer again to our recommended hotels.

Entry to Social Events
Enter to conference social events is open to delegates who have paid their registration and ticket fees or have been sponsored and are wearing conference IDs (this will be issued at registration). Entry to conference presentations and events will be monitored.

Evaluation
A confidential conference evaluation is available via the Conference APP. Your feedback will be used to inform future conferences and we value your co-operation in completing the evaluation.

Exclusive Sponsors
Our exclusive sponsors this year include Ngā Wai o Horotiu Marae, AUT who are providing the Marae Stay Experience and Tāmaki Paenga Hira, Auckland War Memorial Museum who have generously provided the venue and exclusive access to the Māori and Pacific Exhibits.
Exhibitors and Market Stalls
Our sponsors exhibiting this year include The University of Waikato, Otago University, University Bookshop and Huia Publishers, please see the Book Stall advertisements for conference discounts.

Our Indigenous market stalls holders will be displaying and selling custom hand-crafted taonga (treasures) at our two locations: Level 1 Foyer, OGGB and Waipapa Wharekai. Please come and join us for something to eat and drink and bring your colleagues too.

Sightseeing in and around Auckland
Our local transport (train, bus and ferry) company is called MAXX. Call (09) 366 6400 for routes, timetables and information. Tourism Auckland lists the tourist information centres and offers a comprehensive Official Guide at www.aucklandnz.com.
If you are staying on or arriving prior to the conference, check out local events, entertainment and city deals in Auckland; visit Auckland’s Heart of the City website http://www.heartofthecity.co.nz.

For a local experience, we can highly recommend Hike Bike Ako, Waiheke Island. Offering the only guided hiking, biking and cultural learning tours on picturesque Waiheke Island. Owned and operated by researchers Robyn Manuel and Kepa Morgan, you get a very distinct Māori perspective of historical events associated with this magical island. Tours are designed to improve your wellbeing and leave you with lasting memories. Visit their website for more information or contact Robyn and Kepa via the Conference APP http://www.waihekeislandmaoritours.com/

Smoking
Smoking is not permitted inside public buildings in New Zealand. The University of Auckland is smoke-free with smoking banned on all campuses and outdoor spaces. If you wish to smoke you may do so on the pavement on Grafton Road outside the OGGB or on Alten Road outside the Marae.

Volunteers
We have volunteers available to assist throughout the duration of the conference. They will be assisting with roundtable presentations in Waipapa Marae, chairing duties if needed and during social functions. They can also help you with directions or general enquiries.

K. Books Launched

Two books were launched on the evening of 14 November, prior to the formal commencement of the conference and following a series of pre-conference workshops. This launch celebrated Indigenous writing and scholarship, the two texts are:

L. Waipapa Marae: Protocol for the Pōwhiri

He kāinga nō te ururoa, te moana
The ocean is the home of the shark

He kāinga nō te kererū, te ngahere
The forest is the home of the wood pigeon

This proverb has many meanings one of which is that respect should be accorded to those whose domain you enter.

Ko Maungakiekie te maunga
Maungakiekie is the mountain

Ko Waitemata te moana
Waitemata is the sea

Ko Ngāti Whātua te iwi
Ngāti Whātua are the people/tribe (of Auckland)

Ko Waipapa te marae
Waipapa is the University Marae

Ko Tāne-nui-ā-rangi te wharenui
Tāne-nui-ā-rangi is the meeting house

Ko Reipae te wharekai
Reipae is the dining hall
Pōwhiri

This is a brief guide to the procedure for attending a pōwhiri (traditional Māori welcome) at Waipapa Marae. The kawa (protocol) can vary from place to place but for this marae (Māori meeting house) the following guide will give you some idea of what to expect.

It should be noted that walking on to the marae is a time of remembrance, sadness and showing of respect. The manuhiri (visitors) should walk forward slowly with their head bowed, some even shed tears for those who have died. So when called on to the marae it is appropriate to be silent and reverent.

1. Assemble outside the gate and organise kaikōrero (speakers), koha (gift) and kaiwhakahoki i te karanga (the person who will return/answer the call from the home people). A koha is a gift to the people you are visiting, usually this is money, placed into an envelope and given to your speaker(s).

2. Move to the gate - women in the front, men at the back (and sides). It is important that you keep together, with your caller in the front. Usually the elder women of your group will stand at the front. Stay together as a group when moving forward.

3. When the kaikaranga (caller) for the tangata whenua (home people) gives her call, your ope (group) proceeds to walk forward slowly on to the marae atea (porch front of Māori meeting house). It is polite to be silent during the pōwhiri. It is important to stay close together as a group when walking on to the marae - so if you have children they should be at your side.

4. The kaiwhakahoki i te karanga for the manuhiri will reply. She/he is at the front (or sometimes to the sides) of the group and everyone stays behind or close by. The group walks slowly forward and stops about halfway between the gate and the wharenui. At this point the group will stop for one to two minutes.

5. The manuhiri starts walking forward and the kaikaranga for the tangata whenua will begin their second call.

6. The call is answered by the kaiwhakahoki i te karanga for the manuhiri. The group walks on to the porch of the marae where they remove their shoes. They enter the house and go to the right side of the house. They then walk to the right hand side of the house and remain standing. Visitor seating is provided on that right hand side of the house (those unable to get a seat will be seated behind them on the floor or on mattresses). It is correct to remain standing until everyone is assembled inside and until you are asked to be seated by the tangata whenua. Please keep the front row (or two) free for the speakers and male elders.
7. Once seated, the speeches begin (prior to this though, a prayer of thanks is often given). As each speech is made, it is followed with a waiata (song). The manuhiri speakers follow with their speeches and waiata.

8. The koha is usually placed on the floor or handed to a representative of the tangata whenua by the last speaker before the final waiata. At the end of the speeches the tangata whenua will indicate to the manuhiri to come forward to shake hands and to hongi (nose pressing).

9. The hongi is incorrectly translated as rubbing noses. The hongi has special significance, including the mixing of the breath and the wairua (spirit). Often the hongi is only performed by the kaikōrero and kaumātua (elders) of your group. The nose and then the forehead are pressed against the other person’s nose and forehead once (in other parts of New Zealand it is usually two presses of the nose).

10. The formal part of the pōwhiri finishes once the person has had something to drink and eat (there are cultural reasons for this). You are now tangata whenua and you become part of Waipapa Marae. You will be called into the wharekai (dining hall) where a karakia (prayer) is always said before the eating of a meal. A utensil is tapped on the table to indicate to people to be quiet and still as the karakia is about to be said.

11. Kaumātua and visiting dignitaries should be given first priority when lining up for food or for seating at the tables.
Speaking

A great deal of respect is accorded to people who are speaking so there are some rules that are important to know.

- There are no absolute restrictions on women to speak within the wharenui but there are appropriate places and times. Always check prior to standing or until someone has indicated.
- It is not polite to speak when others are speaking. No matter how much you disagree with a speaker, you must wait until they have finished talking completely.
- Never walk in front of a speaker. If you really need to move then walk behind them or bend down if walking in front of them.

Terms

Hongi - pressing together of nose and forehead in greeting [look downwards but do not close your eyes]
Kaikaranga - the woman/women ‘caller’ [tangata whenua side] who has the honour of calling on the visitors

Presentations
Respect for time constraints ensures that all presenters have a chance to speak equally, and that there is time for audience questions and comments to be heard. Standard presentations are 20 minutes, including question and chair duties. There is limited time for chair’s introductions, and to allow people to move between sessions. Please respect your fellow presenters and audience by sticking to these limits. Presenters are asked to please make their way to their allocated room 15 minutes in advance of the session start time to upload your presentation to the computer. Each room has a chair assigned to assist should you need and a staff member will be available to assist with any technical matters should there be a need.

Chairs
Chairs should ensure that they have made contact with their presenters in advance of the session, and arrange that participants meet in their room 15 minutes in advance of the session start time. Do not change the order of sessions published in the programme unless unavoidable.
